

GSFL2023 ROUNDTABLE
November 17		November 18
Time	Friday	Saturday
9:45 10:00	Session Opening: I. M. Nick , GSFL President	Session Opening: I. M. Nick , GSFL President
10:00 11:00	GUEST SPEAKER Isobelle Clarke (University of Lancaster~UK) The Case of Nikolaos Karyounakis: A comparative authorship analysis of a claim of responsibility	GUEST SPEAKER Alison May (University of Leeds~UK) Who or what is a forensic linguist?
11:00 12:00	Paper 1: Karoline Marko (University of Graz ~ Austria) “Recidivism is the enemy of our cities across America.”: The discourse around recidivism and recidivists in the New York Times and the New York Post	Paper 1: Sofia Navarro Beck (Aarhus University ~ Denmark) and Tanya Karoli Christensen (University of Copenhagen ~ Denmark) Countering pseudolinguistic claims: The challenges facing forensic linguists
12:00 13:00	Paper 2: Meike de Boer and Fleur van der Houwen (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam ~ Netherlands) Building a WhatsApp corpus for studying inter- and intra-author variation	Paper 2: Meike de Boer (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam ~ Netherlands) and Willemijn Heeren (Leiden University ~ Netherlands) Analyzing conversations on child sexual abuse forums
13:00 14:00	Lunch Break	Lunch Break	Lunch Break
14:00 15:00	Paper 3: Serena Elms and David Keatley (Murdoch University ~ Australia) Emergency call analysis and its application to police investigations	Paper 3: Sune Sønderberg Mortensen and Trine Lizette Djurhuus Glud (Roskilde University ~ Denmark) Closing arguments in Danish rape trials: Framing sexual abuse and consent

15:00 16:00	Paper 4: Rose Anne Arendsen, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam ~ Netherlands) Authorship analysis for WhatsApp: Examining intra-author consistency with different types of conversation partner and over time	Paper 4: Novella Benedetti (Universitat de Vic ~ Spain) Linguistic analysis of gender asymmetry in courtroom interaction discourse in domestic violence cases in Italy
		Paper 5: Ariadna Grau Magallón (Universitat de Barcelona) and Sheila Queralt (Director and founder of the SQ-Forensic Linguists Laboratory) Police language on statements in cases of gender-based violence in Catalonia

November 19
Time	Sunday
9:45 10:00	Session Opening: I. M. Nick , GSFL President
10:00 11:00	Paper 1: I.M. Nick (GSFL~Germany) Is it just me or does everyone feel like they don't belong here? An Emerging Scholar's Workshop on the Imposter Syndrome in Forensic Linguistics
11:00 12:00	Paper 2: David Wright (Nottingham Trent University~UK), Alice Paver (University of Cambridge ~ UK), and Natalie Braber (Nottingham Trent University~UK) The effects of voice stereotypes on voice parades

12:00 13:00	Paper 3: Sophie Hoerl (Aston University ~ UK) The ultimate violation: Euphemisms in the closing arguments of rape trials
13:00 14:00	Lunch Break
14:00 15:00	Paper 4: Frantz Clermont and Shunichi Ishihara (Speech and Language Laboratory, Australian National University ~ Australia) The sub-band cepstrum as a tool for local spectral analysis in forensic voice comparison
15:00 15:30	Break
15:30 16:30	GUEST SPEAKER Janet Randall (Northeastern University ~USA) Getting to meaning: Experiments from the LingLawLab
16:30- 16.45	Conference Closing: I. M. Nick , GSFL President